

Tune Up Your Taste Buds for a Walking Tour of Greenwich Village To Benefit Passaic Valley UNICO, Sept. 19, 2009

Beginning with brunch at the Slaughtered Lamb Pub, guide Tom Bernardin walks you to some of the favorite spots in the Village including Lilac Chocolates, Murray's Cheese and Faicco's Pork Store.

This walking tour of Greenwich Village is the tastiest way to learn of the rich cultural, social and architectural history of our most unique neighborhood.

Saturday, September 19, 2009

Cost: $90 per person includes bus transportation, brunch, guided tour, and donation to the local UNICO. Payment in full is required by Sept. 4, 2009. Note: NJDOE Provider #4484 Nutley Library gives Two Credits for teachers for this tour.

Bus transportation from the following locations at Clifton City Hall (10 a.m.), Nutley Library (10:30) and 560 Sylvan Ave. (Rte. 9W), Englewood Cliffs (11:00). Other stops may be added. Contact Mainly Meetings Travel LLC at 201-568-2146 or Linda@MainlyMeetingsTravel.com.

REFUND POLICY: Tickets are sold on a first-come, first-served basis. No refunds except if Mainly Meetings Travel LLC cancels the tour. Registrants may give their places to other parties, but MMT must be notified before the tour date.